Call for Tutorial Proposals

IEEE GLOBECOM 2022 seeks half-day tutorial proposals on new and emerging topics within the scope of communications & networking. Proposals should be submitted in a PDF file, not exceeding 5 pages, for review via EDAS (https://edas.info/newPaper.php?c=28479&track=107016). The selected tutorials will be held on the first and the last day of the conference (Dec. 4 and Dec. 8, 2022). Please address questions to Tutorial Co-Chairs: Prof. Abbas Jamalipour (a.jamalipour@ieee.org) and Prof. Stefano Giordano (stefano.giordano@unipi.it).

Tutorial Proposal Format

The proposal should concisely (maximum 5 pages) and clearly describe the content and objectives of the tutorial, and must include:

- Title of the tutorial
- Abstract, objectives, and motivation
- Name, affiliation, and a short biography (maximum 200 words) of each tutorial instructor
- A description of the topics that the tutorial will address, emphasizing their timeliness
- An outline of the tutorial, including a tentative time schedule
- When relevant, a description of previous tutorial experience of the instructor(s). Link to video recordings of public lectures by the instructor(s), if available.
- State whether similar tutorials have been offered at recent ICC & GLOBECOM (last two years), and if so, how the proposed tutorial differs.

Tutorial Proposal Submission

Proposal should be submitted in a single PDF file, not exceeding 5 pages, for review through EDAS (https://edas.info/newPaper.php?c=28479&track=107016).
